

November Council Meeting Minutes

The November 14, 2017 council meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. by Vice President Deb Smith. Members present were Joel, Sharyn, Kyle, Al, Carol and Colleen. Lindsay, Amanda and Pastor John were also present. Members absent were Dennis, Adam and Wayne. Renee Solberg was present as a guest to present the lutifisk supper check to council along with a report which is in the November council packet. Sharyn moved to accept the agenda with the changes added and Al second, approved.

God sightings were shared by council members and Deb led us in devotions.

Pastor John led us in a discussion on "The Unstuck Church: Equipping Churches to Experience Sustained Health." He also gave us a report on how the transition team is progressing.

Lindsay reported that Jackie Longendike is working on getting the Mission and Outreach Commission up and running again which will be starting in January.

Memorial and Interior Design have two families interested in improving our outdoor landscape. They have money designated for it and a plan drawn up for it. They would like to proceed with this in the spring of 2018. Mulch is also needed for the playground area. Al motioned and Kyle seconded with all voting to proceed.

Financials were presented by Deb, with the consensus being that we are in pretty good shape. Joel motioned and Deb second to accept financials. All agreed.

The Annual Meeting is set for January 24th at 7:30 p.m. after worship on Wednesday night. Al motioned to hold it then and Colleen second. Approved.

We have a few people willing to do the tabulating job, still need more. It is being worked on to get more and set a time for tabulating.

Ann Brenke has been hired to be the adult hand bell choir director. No one is doing the children's chimes or the junior bell choir.

There were no printed October minutes.

Al motioned to adjourn and Carol second, passed.

Next council meeting will be on December 12 with Adam doing devotions. The Lord's Prayer was said by all.
